...the only limitation is your imagination

This card is quick and easy with rich fall tones and a lot of visual texture.

1. Start with a Basic Gray A-2 standard horizontal card base - 5 1/2" X 4 1/4".
2. Attach a Very Vanilla 5 3/8" X 4 1/8".
3. Attach the patterned paper layer measuring 5 1/4" X 4".
4. Stamp your choice of leaves from the Love of Leaves stamp set in Crushed Curry, Cinnamon Cider and Pretty Peacock.
5. Cut and emboss the leaves with the Stitched Leaves Dies and your cutting machine.
6. About 1" up from the bottom of the patterned paper layer, add a horizontal card stock strip measuring 3/4" X 5 3/8". NOTE: I used Multipurpose glue to attach the horizontal strip but I didn't glue it all the way across the card. Leave about 2" unglued on the right side so you can slip the "leaf that got away" under the Pretty Peacock card stock strip.
7. Once you have the leaf in place, glue down the remainder of the card stock strip.
8. "Cluster" your leaves from the bottom up and attach them together with glue dots.
9. Attach a Linen Thread bow to the stems of the clustered leaves with a glue dot.
10. Stamp the sentiment on the right side of a 2 1/4" X 5/8" strip of Very Vanilla card stock.
11. Attach your leaf cluster to the Pretty Peacock horizontal strip with Stampin' Dimensionals.
12. Slip the sentiment layer under the leaf cluster. I used a little multipurpose glue since it's a little easier to move the sentiment layer into place.
