For this card the real star is the Shining Brightly Designer Series Paper along with the Stampin' Up! Stars at Night Bundle. To make these cards you will want to watch the video to see how you do it. This is a different method for me and one that I saw from Patty Bennett. I was so pleased with what she did that I couldn't wait to give it a try. And now I'm doing the card with a Christmas theme. I hope you enjoy this method of making 3 cards at once. Happy Stamping!

Card Directions

1. Cut your 3 designs of Designer Series to 3-3/4" x 5". Stack all 3 pieces together and cut all 3 at the same time keeping them even. See video for cutting directions.
2. Once you cut the papers separate them into 3 piles so you have one of each pattern and shape in each pile. Layout to create a 3-3/4" x 5" design.
3. Glue one set of 3 to a Night of Navy Cardstock panel. Repeat till all 3 panels are made. Adhere each panel to a Very Vanilla Card Base.
4. For the remaining steps repeat each one for each card.
5. Take a piece of ribbon, cross lay it over, and tape to card front.
6. Stamp the greeting in Night of Navy Ink onto Very Vanilla Cardstock, cut out with coordinating die. Adhere over the ribbon using Dimensionals.
7. Add 2 Star of Trinkets Embellishments to bottom corners of greeting.
8. Stamp star collage stamp in Night of Navy Ink in the upper right hand corner and the lower left hand corner of a Very Vanilla panel. Stamp the saying in Night of Navy Ink. Adhere this panel to a Night of Navy panel. Take this new panel and adhere to inside of card.
9. The envelope was finished by stamping the star collage stamp in Night of Navy Ink in the lower left hand corner.
