Stampin' Up! Thanks A Bunch Card is a fun stamp set, especially for Springtime. Plus it makes such a cute and quirky card to share with family and friends. Right after the written directions is a picture of a second card I made out of the same stamp set. Down below the "supplies used" you'll find what I used on this "Thank You" card and the measurements.

I hope you enjoyed this card as much as I enjoyed making and sharing it with you.

Let's Get Started

1. Fold your Granny Apple Green card base in half on the score line and burnish with Bone Folder.
2. Before this next step keep in mind you will be cutting this piece of cardstock out with a die so your canvas is not quite as large as the 3-1/4" x 4-1/2" White panel is. If you want cut your panel first. On your Basic White cardstock stamp the full carrot in Melody Mango Ink, repeat 2 more times for 3 carrots. Next, use the long thin stamp with lines (on long side of the stamp sheet) and stamp it in Pumpkin Pie Ink lining it up to right side and top of carrot, repeat on the other 2 carrots. This is called 2 step stamping.
3. Stamp the wide leaf in Old Olive Ink on top of each carrot.
4. With Granny Apple Green Ink stamp the larger leafy stamp coming out of the top of carrot on each side of the wide leaf. Use a mask, post-it note or scratch paper to cover carrot so you don't get green ink on the carrots so you can shorten the thick stem. Use the 4th largest Deckled Rectangle Die to cut this out. Adhere to Dandy Designs Designer Series Paper with your favorite adhesive.
5. Cut a 5" Burlap Ribbon and adhere to card front near the bottom of the White Cardstock bottom and wrap ends around to back of card. To do this I added a piece of Tear & Tape to the entire length of the back of ribbon. Adhere to Granny Apple Green card base.
6. Stamp your Greeting from the Thanks A Bunch Stamp Set to a piece of Basic White Cardstock with Mango Melody Ink and cut out with smallest Deckled Rectangle Die. Using the next to smallest Deckled Rectangle Die and cut one out of Granny Apple Green card stock. Adhere greeting to this and adhere to card front over the ribbon.

7. The inside was finished by stamping "Happy Birthday" from the Biggest Wish Stamp Set in Mango Melody Ink onto White Cardstock. Adhere to card inside. Add a piece of Dandy Designs DSP to bottom on White Cardstock.
8. For the Envelope I took the small bunch of 3 carrots stamp and stamped it Mango Melody Ink to the left hand bottom corner. Then stamp the small leaf cluster two time on top of the carrots.

And now you have a beautiful card to brighten someone's day. Don't forget to give it to someone.

Happy Stamping!
