Dimensions

- Very Vanilla card base 5-1/2 x 8-1/2 scored at 4-1/4
- Very Vanilla 5-1/4 x 4
- DSP 5-1/4 x 4
- very vanilla scrap
- blueberry bushel scrap

Step by step

1. Cut cardstock base and Garden Impression DSP
2. Use Big shot to cut Florentine from very vanilla cardstock. Do not remove the die from the paper. Flip the paper over so you are looking at the cut side of the die. With a piece of press and seal plastic wrap press to the back side of the die. Be sure to press on all the small pieces of the die and to keep them in the shape.
3. Flip over the paper so the press and seal is on the bottom. Carefully remove the die, leaving all the small pieces on the press and seal.
4. Lay another piece of press and seal on the cardstock and press so all the pieces, with their right side up, are sticking to the press and seal. Flip it over and remove the press and seal from the wrong side of the die cut. What remains should be all the small pieces wrong side up on the press and seal.

5. Use mini and regular size dimensionals on each piece. For the really tiny pieces on the edges cut pieces of dimensionals to fit.
6. remove all the backing from the dimensionals. flip over the paper and center on the DSP. Carefully remove the press and seal.
7. Stamp the sentiment and two flower images on piece of scrap very vanilla. Watercolor the flowers with aqua painter and blueberry bushel and soft sea foam ink
8. cut out the sentiment with smallest circle from stitched shapes. Hand snip the flowers or use the Tea Time framelits (available in the 2019-2020 annual catalog)
9. punch blueberry bushel with story label punch. Adhere flowers and sentiment to label with tape runner.
10. Die cut blueberry bushel with leaf image from Well written. Adhere to card front with liquid glue
11. adhere sentiment to card front with tape runner
