Even though the Day at the Farm Designer Series Paper is no longer available through Sale-A-Bration, you can still make an adorable card using the On the Farm Stamp Set and On the Farm Dies! I made an All-Occasion card, but you can easily make this into a birthday card, friendship card, or thinking of you card! This set makes great kids' cards too! The die set includes a massive amount of dies so you'll want to check it out. Let's go!

Supplies:

- On the Farm Bundle (Stamps and Dies)
- Layering Circles Dies
- Matte Black Dots
- Linen Thread
- Paper: Cherry Cobbler, Basic Black, Basic White, Granny Apple Green, Mossy Meadow
- Ink: Tuxedo Black Memento Ink, Balmy Blue, Granny Apple Green, Smoky Slate

1. Card Cuts:

- Card Base - Cut 1 Cherry Cobbler cardstock to 8-1/2" x 5-1/2", score at 4-1/4"
- Outside & Inside Mats - Cut 2 Basic Black cardstock to 5-1/8" x 3-7/8"
- Outside & Inside Panels - Cut 2 Basic White cardstock to 5" x 3-3/4"
- Scraps of Granny Apple Green and Mossy Meadow cardstock for die cutting two hills - 1 from each color
- Scraps of Basic White cardstock for stamping and die cutting sentiment label, clouds, sheep, barn, silo, chicken and trees. Scrap of Basic White for die cutting windmill.

2. Create a mask using a scrap piece of paper. I created my mask by using the long, thin wavy die from the On the Farm Dies set to die cut a scrap piece of paper. Lay the mask over one of the white panels and using a blending brush, blend Granny Apple Green ink onto the lower third of the panel.

3. Stamp, color and die cut the following from scraps of Basic White cardstock. Color as indicated. Use coordinating dies from the On the Farm Dies set to cut out.

- Stamp 1 sheep using Smoky Slate ink. Use the light shade of a Petal Pink Stampin' Blend to color the inside of the sheep's ears. Use the light shade of a Smoky Slate Stampin' Blend to shade the sheep's face and body. Use a Basic Black Stampin' Write marker to darken the sheep's eyes, nose, mouth and feet. When die cutting, be sure to insert the curly cews die inside of the sheep die before cutting. Note that the curly cews will pop out to give the sheep some dimension.
- Stamp 2 clouds using Balmy Blue ink. Shade the bottoms of the clouds with the light shade of a Smoky Slate Stampin' Blend. Use the Stampin' Blend Color Lifter to soften the Smoky Slate lines.
- Stamp 1 barn using Tuxedo Black Memento ink. Using Stampin' Blends, color the barn in the light shade of Cherry Cobbler and the roof and windows in the dark shade of Smoky Slate.
- Stamp 1 silo using Tuxedo Black Memento ink. Color the silo using the light and dark shade of Smoky Slate Stampin' Blends.
- Stamp 1 set of trees using Tuxedo Black Memento ink. Color one tree in the light shade of an Old Olive Stampin' Blend and color the other with the dark shade of an Old Olive Stampin' Blend.
- Die cut 1 windmill. Color the blades of the windmill using the light shade of a Smoky Slate Stampin' Blend. Color the structure using the light shade of a Soft Suede Stampin' Blend.
- Stamp 1 chicken using Tuxedo Black Memento ink. Color the chicken's comb using a Cherry Cobbler Stampin' Blend. Use the light shade of a Cajun Craze Stampin' Blend to color the chicken's body. I left the face white and some areas on the body white.

4. Die cut 1 hill from a scrap of Granny Apple Green cardstock. Die cut 1 hill from a scrap of Mossy Meadow cardstock.
5. Stamp the sentiment "Today is a good day" onto a scrap of Basic White cardstock. Use the smallest circle die from the Layering Circles Dies set to cut out.
6. Using the grass stamp from the On the Farm Stamp Set, stamp grass along the bottom of the ink blended panel, staggering where you stamp the grass (i.e., don't stamp in a straight line).
7. Dry fit all of the die cut pieces onto the card front before adhering. Use the provided photos as a reference. The two die cut hills, barn, silo, trees and windmill were all adhered to the ink blended panel using liquid glue. Note that the base of the trees is tucked behind one of the hills and the silo is tucked slightly behind the barn. Adhere the sentiment label, clouds, sheep and chicken to the ink blended panel using Stampin' Dimensionals.
8. Adhere the assembled, ink blended panel to one of the Basic Black mats, then adhere this unit to the card front.
9. On the inside white panel, use a blending brush to lightly blend Granny Apple Green ink onto the lower right corner. Use the grass stamp and stamp grass randomly over the ink blended area using Granny Apple Green ink. Stamp several clouds across the top portion of the panel using Balmy Blue ink. Shade with the light shade of a Smoky Slate Stampin' Blend if desired. Adhere the panel to the remaining Basic Black mat, then adhere this unit to the inside of the card.
