These little treat holders are fun to make and work up quickly using only a single sheet of 5-1/4" x 5-1/4" designer series paper. Add a small tag, ribbon and some decorations for the front of the treat holder and you're done! I used the Sophisticated Sled Bundle for these treat holders. The treat holders measure 1-1/4" x 1-1/4" x 4" and they will hold a couple of fun sized candy bars (the mini's), some Hershey's Kisses, or even a couple of lip balms! They are a perfect size for table placeholders or party favors, too! let's take a look!

Forming the Treat Box:

- Cut Designer Series Paper to 5-1/4" x 5-1/4". Use a score board to score along one side at 1-1/4", 2-1/2", 3-3/4", and 5". Turn the paper one quarter turn, then score at 1-1/4"
- Use the diagram below for cutting instructions. Cut along all dashed lines as indicated, then cut out where there is an "X".
- Apply Tear & Tape along the 1/4" section, then adhere to opposite side to form the tube of the box.
- Fold in box ends and secure with Tear & Tape or liquid glue.

- Stamp the swag image from the Sophisticated Sled Stamp Set in Memento ink onto a piece of white cardstock. Use Stampin' Blends in Real Red, Pretty in Pink, Cherry Cobbler, and Granny Apple Green to color in the image. Die cut the image using the Sophisticated Sled Dies to cut out the image.
- Adhere the swag to the front of the treat holder using Stampin' Dimensionals.
- Gently pinch in the sides of the treat holder at the top, then use a 1/8" hole punch to punch a hole at the top. Thread Sheer Ribbon through the holes and tie a bow at the top of the treat holder.
- Stamp the "Good Tidings" sentiment onto a piece of white cardstock measuring a 1/2" x 2" in Granny Apple Green ink. Use a 1/8" hole punch to punch a hole in the end of the sentiment label. Loop Garden Green Linen Thread through the punched hole, then tie the linen thread around the bow at the top of the treat holder, creating another bow.

- Use the Sophisticated Sled Dies to die cut 1 pair of skates from white cardstock, 1 pair of laces from Real Red cardstock and 1 pair of skate blades from Silver Textured Metallic Specialty Paper. Assemble the skate pieces. Note that the laces tuck inside of the slit cut in the skate boots. The blades get adhered over top of the white skates at the bottom.
- Gently pinch in the sides of the treat holder at the top, then use a 1/8" hole punch to punch a hole at the top. Thread Sheer Ribbon through the holes and tie a bow at the top of the treat holder.
- Attach the folded end of a length of Real Red & White Baker's Twine to the back of the skates using a Mini Glue Dot. Adhere several Stampin' Dimensionals to the back of the skates, then adhere these to the front of the treat holder.
- Stamp the "Let's decorate the season with happiness" in Real Red ink onto a 2-1/4" x 1" white sentiment label. Use a 1/8" hole punch to punch a hole onto the end of the sentiment label.
- With the loose ends of the Baker's Twine (attached to the skates), tie the Baker's Twine ends around the Sheer Ribbon bow at the top of the treat holder and loop in the sentiment label, then tie the Baker's Twine in a bow.

This completes today's project!
