I used the Christmas Scottie Bundle (stamps and punch) to create today's card. This card only involves stamping, punching the scottie dog, and layering up and done! How cute is this little scottie!

1. Card Cuts:

- Card Base - Cut 1 Basic Black cardstock to 8-1/2" x 5-1/2", score at 4-1/4"
- Mat - Cut 1 Real Red cardstock to 5-3/8" x 4-1/8"
- Panel - Cut 1 Basic White to 5" x 3-3/4"
- Scraps of Basic White cardstock for stamping and punching the scottie dog and bow
- Inside Mat - Cut 1 Real Red cardstock to 5-3/8" x 4-1/8"
- Inside Panel - Cut 1 Basic White cardstock to 5" x 3-3/4"

2. Starting with the white panel and using Balmy Blue ink, second generation stamp the snowflakes all over the panel. Second generation stamping involves inking up the stamp, stamping onto a piece of scrap paper first, then stamping on the project.
3. Next, stamp the long ribbon in Real Red ink around the perimeter of the white panel (top, right, bottom and left edges).
4. Stamp the sentiment "May you days be furry & bright" in Tuxedo Black Memento ink towards the bottom of the white panel.

5. Using a scrap of Basic White cardstock, stamp the scottie in Tuxedo Black Memento ink. Stamp the scottie's collar in Real Red ink. Use the coordinating punch to punch out the scottie dog.
6. On a scrap piece of white cardstock, stamp the bow in Real Red ink and use the coordinating punch to punch out the bow.
7. Adhere the stamped white panel to its Real Red mat, then adhere this panel to the card front.
8. Glue the punched bow to the scottie's neck, then using Stampin' Dimensionals adhere the scottie to the card front, towards the middle right. (Refer to photo above for reference.)
9. On the inside white panel, second generation stamp snowflakes around the perimeter of the white panel in Balmy Blue ink. Stamp the greeting "Merry Christmas" in Tuxedo Black Memento ink on the panel, then stamp the bow in Real Red ink just above and to the left of the sentiment.
10. Adhere the inside panel to its Real Red mat, then adhere this unit to the inside of the card.
11. For the envelope, stamp snowflakes along the bottom front in Balmy Blue ink. These snowflakes were not second generation stamped. Stamp snowflakes on the envelope flap.
12. Add several Red Rhinestone Basic Jewels to the card front, and one to the bow on the inside of the card.

The card is complete! I love the simplicity of this stamp set and bundle and who can resist this adorable scottie!

Products used to create today's card are included on the next page.
