- Card Base - Cut 1 Lemon Lolly cardstock to 11" x 4-1/4", score at 5-1/2"
  - Panel - Cut 1 Basic White cardstock to 5-1/4" x 4"
  - Scraps of Basic White and Granny Apple Green for stamping and/or die cutting flowers and greenery
  - Sentiment Label - Cut 1 Basic White cardstock to approximately 2-1/2" x 1-3/4"
  - Inside Panel - Cut 1 Basic White cardstock to 5-1/4" x 4"
2. I created my own background panel. There is actually a piece of designer series paper that has Lemon Lolly lines on a white background but I ran out...so I created my own! Start with one of the white panels and create a background on the panel using a Lemon Lolly Stampin' Blend, a strip of scrap cardstock measuring at least 1" tall and 4-1/4" wide. Line your panel up on a piece of grid paper, then lay down the scrap strip of cardstock and pull the Lemon Lolly Stampin' Blend across the edge of the strip of scrap cardstock. Vary the width of the lines. Repeat until you have stripes across the entire panel. It is okay if the stripes are not exactly uniform and even. Adhere the panel to the card front and center from top to bottom and left to right.
  3. Use the Multi-flower two step stamps from the Textured Floral Stamp Set and stamp two times onto a piece of white cardstock. Stamp the flowers in Bubble Bath ink and stamp the stem in Granny Apple Green Ink. Die cut the images using the coordinating dies from the Textured Floral Stamp Set. Also die cut two of the large greenery stems from Granny Apple Green cardstock. I chose two different greenery stems from the dies.
  4. On the two die cut flowers and stem pieces, use the light and dark shades of Flirty Flamingo Stampin' Blends to better define the flowers. I used the light shade to define the flower buds, then used the darker shade to flick color up from the bottoms of the buds, but do not color in all of the flowers with the dark shade. Slightly blend the colors on the flower buds using the light shade of a Bubble Bath Stampin' Blend.
  5. Arrange the greenery stems onto the center of the card front and adhere with liquid glue. Adhere one of the die cut flowers so that it is sitting slightly to the right of the greenery stems and adhere with glue.

6. Apply a small amount of Stampin' Seal to the card front just below the bottoms of the greenery pieces. Cut a length of Lemon Lolly Sheer Ribbon and form a Z shape with the ribbon, looping it back and forth. Apply more Stampin' Seal as needed to hold the ribbon in place where it will be hidden by the sentiment label.
7. Stamp the sentiment "Birthday blooms for you" in Granny Apple Green ink onto a piece of white scrap card stock. Use the decorative label die from the All That Dies set to cut out. Apply Stampin' Dimensionals to the top and bottom of the sentiment label and adhere over the ribbon onto the card front.
8. Trim down the second flower and stem image as needed and adhere this image just above the top of the sentiment label using liquid glue and be sure to tuck the cut edge under the sentiment label.
9. On the inside panel, use the same two-step stamps to stamp the flowers and stem. Stamp the flowers in Bubble Bath ink and stamp the stem in Granny Apple Green ink. Color the flowers as you did in Step #4 above. Stamp the sentiment "Every thought of you makes me smile" in Granny Apple Green ink. Adhere the panel to the inside of the card.

10. Stamp the same flowers and stem onto the envelope front. Color as you did in Step #4 above. Be sure to slide a scrap piece of paper or cardstock inside of the envelope before coloring to prevent bleed through of the Stampin' Blends.
11. Stamp one of the small flower images onto the envelope flap in Bubble Bath ink. Use the light and dark shades of Flirty Flamingo Stampin' Blends to define the flower center and petals.
12. Add several Adhesive- Backed Solid Gems in yellow to the card front.
