Flirty Flamingo Striped Ribbon - 3" length

Linen Thread: two 6" lengths

Instructions:

1. Fold Thick White cardstock in half to create card base.
2. Use the stem stamp, stamp image in Old Olive ink onto cardfront.
3. Use Flirty Flamingo Ink to add the flowers. This is easy to do because the stamps are photopolymer.
4. Squeeze water into brush of Aquapainter, and pick up Old Olive ink from the ink pad. Hit the aquapainter firmly to splatter splotches of Old Olive ink onto the Crumb Cake cardstock panel.
5. Use the Layering Square framelit that measures 2 1/8" across on the inside, and cut a square towards the top of the Crumb Cake panel.
6. Use two framelit squares - one with a scallop edge and one straight - placing the straight edged square inside the scalloped square and run through the Big Shot at the same time to create a scalloped frame.
7. Tuck one end of the Flirty Flamingo Ribbon to the back of the Crumb Cake panel - where the square was cut and secure. I used a dimensional to hold it in place.
8. Wrap both pieces of linen thread around the ribbon, and tie in a knot, and then a bow. I made the bow pretty "loopy" and pulled the loops to the side once it was tied.
9. Secure ribbon in place with a glue dot directly behind the linen thread.
10. Adhere the Crumb Cake Panel to the card front using dimensionals.
11. Use Glue Dots to adhere the Scalloped Square diagonally over the straight square.
12. Stamp "You'll be missed" on to the small piece of Whisper White cardstock and flag the ends with scissors. Attach to right edge of card with dimensionals.
