center out of the frame using one of the Stitched Rectangle dies. Keep the cut out center for the inside of the card.

Die cut the butterfly from the bottom section of the skinnier large butterfly cluster die. Cut the excess where it joins the other butterflies at the tip of the wing, rounding the wing tip as you cut.

Die cut one small butterfly and one tiny butterfly from Basic Gray for the inside of the card.

Stamp the words "For You" in Basic Gray ink on the smallest piece of white, cut it out with scissors.

Stamp the words "Sending Positive..." on the 2" x 3 3/8" piece of Whisper White for the inside of the card.

Place a mini glue dot in each corner of the Basic Gray frame and adhere it to the embossed vellum piece in the center.

Adhere the butterfly inside the frame with mini glue dots.

Adhere the words "For You" to the right of the butterfly using mini glue dots.

Adhere two Champagne rhinestones to the center of the butterfly.

Tie a bow with the Metallic Edged Petal Pink ribbon. Adhere it with a glue dot in the upper left corner of the frame.

Adhere the strip of designer series paper to the 4" x 5 1/4" white piece, adhere the white piece inside the card.

Adhere the inside message to the gray stitched rectangle panel that was cut out to make the frame.

Adhere this layered message over the designer series paper strip.

Adhere the small butterflies around the inside message with multipurpose liquid glue. This card was inspired by a card made by Stampin' Up! Demonstrator Donna Ross.
