Cut away all of the gray shaded areas with the Paper Trimmer or a pair of scissors, discard.

Slide the top flap all the way in to the Delightful Tag Topper punch and punch.

Fold over the tab and side on the right so that the flat box will fit in the Stampin' Cut & Emboss Machine.

Lay the 2nd from smallest smooth sided oval in the center of the panel on the left side to cut the window opening. If you do not want a window opening, skip this step.

Place a glue dot in each corner of the window sheet and adhere it inside the box to cover the oval opening. This will keep the candy from falling out of the box.

Place a piece of Tear & Tape adhesive on the "tab" on the right side of the box. Place a piece of Tear & Tape on the bottom "tab" of the box. Peel off the backing on the side, fold the box over and adhere the tab inside. Some of it might show in the window opening but you can cover it with the arm. Peel the backing off of the bottom tab, tuck inside and adhere. Slide a bone folder or ruler inside the box to press it in place.

For the bunny:

Die cut four of the 2nd from smallest, smooth sided oval for the ears and feet.

Die cut two of the smallest smooth sided ovals for the arms.

Draw lines with the Basic Black Stampin' Write Marker on the feet and paws (optional).

Adhere the pink ovals at the bottom of the white ovals with Multipurpose Liquid Glue (don't center them, adhere them towards the bottom) for the ears. Curl the ears with the bone folder. Adhere to the back of the box with glue dots or liquid glue or Tear & Tape.

Adhere the two feet on the bottom of the box.

Adhere the front of the paws on to the window of the box with Dimensionals. Fold the back part of the arm and adhere it to the sides of the box with glue dots.

Punch the heart from the Dog Builder Punch and adhere over the hole that the tag topper made using a glue dot.

Draw whiskers with the Basic Black Stampin' Write Marker.

Adhere two of the smallest Matte Black Dots for eyes.

Place a half a Velcro dot under the flap and adhere.

Punch two blooms with the Small Blooms Punch from Basic White. With a bone folder, curl the petals down on one of the flowers. Adhere the two together with a dimensional. Adhere to the back of the box for the bunny tail with a glue dot.

For the ducky:

Punch two of the "lips" in Daffodil Delight for the wings. Adhere them to the window sheet with a Dimensional. Fold the wing back and adhere it to the sides of the box with a glue dot.

Punch two fo the "lips" in Pumpkin Pie, adhere to the bottom of the box as feet with mini glue dots.

Punch the heart from the Kiss Punch, adhere to the flap for the beak. Adhere two of the larger Matte Black Dots for eyes.

Punch one Small Bloom from Daffodil Delight and adhere to the back of the head for feathers.
