

The Leader in Dental Front Office Solutions & Training

Handling Late Patients

When a patient always runs late, I can get them to arrive on time by:

If a patient runs late but your office will still see them, what can you do to help speed the patient along and get them into the dental chair as soon as possible?

What is your office policy regarding patients running late?

Notes: