

Name _____

Date _____

Use these cards to collect textual evidence to support your thesis. Each of these evidence cards can be used to build out your body paragraphs.

Evidence Card

What is this evidence about? (select one):

- characters
- setting
- plot
- theme
- point of view
- word choice
- symbols
- text structure
- other: _____

Evidence (quote, paraphrase, or detail):

Page Number: _____

When in the story does this evidence occur? (e.g., What else is happening? Who is speaking and why?)

What effect does this evidence have on the story or reader? (e.g., Does the evidence suggest a theme? Does it reveal new information to the reader?)

Evidence Card

What is this evidence about? (select one):

- characters
- setting
- plot
- theme
- point of view
- word choice
- symbols
- text structure
- other: _____

Evidence (quote, paraphrase, or detail):

Page Number: _____

When in the story does this evidence occur? (e.g., What else is happening? Who is speaking and why?)

What effect does this evidence have on the story or reader? (e.g., Does the evidence suggest a theme? Does it reveal new information to the reader?)

Evidence Card

What is this evidence about? (select one):

- characters
- setting
- plot
- theme
- point of view
- word choice
- symbols
- text structure
- other: _____

Evidence (quote, paraphrase, or detail):

Page Number: _____

When in the story does this evidence occur? (e.g., What else is happening? Who is speaking and why?)

What effect does this evidence have on the story or reader? (e.g., Does the evidence suggest a theme? Does it reveal new information to the reader?)

Evidence Card

What is this evidence about? (select one):

- characters
- setting
- plot
- theme
- point of view
- word choice
- symbols
- text structure
- other: _____

Evidence (quote, paraphrase, or detail):

Page Number: _____

When in the story does this evidence occur? (e.g., What else is happening? Who is speaking and why?)

What effect does this evidence have on the story or reader? (e.g., Does the evidence suggest a theme? Does it reveal new information to the reader?)