British Columbia	4/29	All ICBC Driver Licensing and Service BC offices are open, some Appointed Agents are closing or limiting services. In ICBC offices customers are being asked health screening questions before being permitted to enter office. Limited number of customers in office at any given time. Vehicle Reg/Licensing/Insurance broker offices remain open for processing. Enhanced DL/ID appointments are currently suspended.	All ICBC Driver Licensing and Service BC offices are open, some Appointed Agents are closing or limiting services. In ICBC offices visitors are being asked health screening questions before being permitted to enter office. ICBC is limiting access to its waiting areas to ensure appropriate social distancing. To help communities whose offices have closed and to limit contact in all public facing offices, effective 23MAR23, customers who need to renew an expiring DL, who require replacement DL due to loss or damage of DL credential or who need to reinstate their DL can do so over the phone with a DL Contact Centre. Customer will be mailed paper interim DL for 90 days, unless Canada Post is affected. Driver Medical Examination Reports are temporarily suspended; vision screening requirement remains in place for new applicants. Vehicle registration transactions can still be processed in insurance broker offices and these brokers are now temporarily allowed by ICBC to accept registration & insurance renewals over the phone. These independent broker offices will decide if they will continue serving customers in person. ServiceBC and Appointed Agent providers who generally serve remote areas will make their own decisions.	As of 3/25 customers whose BCDL is nearing expiry or expired, customers will renew or replace their DL by phone. Customers renewing by phone will be sent a 90 day interim paper license. Effective 3/20 BCDL renewal and replacements will only be processed in DLO by exception.	Beginning 5/19 knowledge tests will be available by appointment only for the following customers: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • All commercial learner class applicants including air brakes & heavy trailer. • New residents to B.C.
