NSTA Members to Meet With Congressional Representatives For The Capitol Hill Spring Bus-In

ALEXANDRIA, VA- The National School Transportation Association will host its annual Spring Bus-In on April 23 through April 25 in Washington, D.C. This three-day event will include Congressional meetings, NSTA committee meetings and the 10th Anniversary celebration of the Clean School Bus Program. Scheduled speakers to the group include Chairman Bill Shuster (R-PA) of the House Transportation and Infrastructure Committee, Senator Tom Carper (D-DE) and other Members of Congress.

“This event is incredibly important to and for our members. Spending time in our nation's capital as a group and focused specifically on our most pressing issues is critical to our success,” said NSTA Executive Director, Ronna Sable Weber.

NSTA’s quarterly committee meetings are scheduled Tuesday ending with a group dinner and keynote speaker. This year NSTA is honored to host Keith Smith, Prime Policy Group's tax policy expert speaking on comprehensive tax reform. On Wednesday, NSTA has over 190 individual Hill meetings organized by Prime Policy Group for its members with Congressional representatives. The 10th Anniversary celebration of the Clean School Bus Program will be held Thursday morning with NSTA members and manufacturers, the American School Bus Council and senior representatives from the Environmental Protection Agency. Following that, NSTA members will hear from a series of many Members of Congress who are champions of their issues.

“We are excited to welcome members to Washington, D.C. for a successful and productive week benefiting NSTA and the school bus industry,” said Magda Dimmendaal, NSTA President.

President Magda Dimmendaal will be in attendance along with President-Elect Tim Flood, Government Relations Chairman John Corr, and Association and Industry Development Chairman Rob Nelson.
