OnCourse Learning Names Brett Shively to Top Financial Services Post

BROOKFIELD, Wis. — OnCourse Learning, a leading provider of workforce solutions and education for the healthcare, financial services and real estate industries, has named Brett Shively its new Executive Vice President of Financial Services.

In his role, Shively will focus on leading the sales and operations of OnCourse Learning Financial Services, which includes the banking, mortgage, credit union, gaming and alternative financial service markets. OnCourse Learning Financial Services brands include BankersEdge, Digital University, ProSchools and TrainingPro.

“Brett’s deep experience in the financial services, banking and insurance industries guarantees he understands the importance of education and workforce development to help companies grow and remain compliant in a regulated industry,” said Patrick Sheahan, OnCourse Learning president and CEO.

“My goal is to ensure OnCourse Learning continues to develop new products and offer professional services that enable companies to enhance their workforce and remain compliant through innovative solutions,” Shively said.

In leading the sales and operations of OnCourse Learning Financial Services, Shively will focus on delivering results in highly regulated markets. That will include tailoring messages for the appropriate audiences and inspiring well-trained teams.

“I consider leading one of my utmost privileges, sharing inspiration to bring people together and help them grow into highly productive, professional teams,” Shively said.

Shively brings a strong background in education, licensing certification and training as well as deep industry experience in banking, financial services and insurance to his new position.

Shively has served 25 years in the financial services and education industries with companies such as Everspring Partners, Trident University, DeVry Education and Kaplan Financial.
