UNITED PROTESTANT CHURCH

Services at the Columbia High School on Sunday, July 23: 9:45 a.m. - Sunday School, all age groups (a new class for single Young Adults will be taught by Rev. Acheson); 11:00 a.m. - Public Worship, Pastor's theme, "A Church God Loves" (a nursery is provided for young children to permit parents to attend this service); 6:30 p. m. - Youth Fellowship groups in a combined service, with a pot-luck supper; 8:00 p.m. - Evening Friendly Hour, in charge of the Youth Caravan.

The Youth Caravan - a group of three College girls and an adult counsellor - will be in Richland from July 23 to July 28, working in Intermediate, Senior and Adult groups. During this week of fellowship the Intermediates will use as their subject "The Kind of World We Want", the Senior Youth group will study "What I Believe", and the Adult group will study "Youth Fellowship and the Adult Worker". The groups will combine for informal singing, worship, and recreation at the evening hour.

RICHLAND AMERICAN LEGION

W. B. Townsend, who may be addressed at The Drug Center, Goethals Drive and Symons Street, asks that American Legion members or prospective members interested in perpetuating the Richland Post contact him at once.

Since most former members of the local post have moved from this vicinity, it will be necessary to enroll ten members if the present charter is to be retained.

Any honorably discharged veteran is eligible for membership. Veterans of World War II are invited to join, and members of other posts who plan to remain in Richland may transfer. The local officers will arrange necessary details.

BASEBALL GAMES SUNDAY AFTERNOON

Two baseball games will be played Sunday afternoon, July 23, at Richland Baseball Park, located on Hanford Road north of the Division 3 school. At 2:00 p. m. the Military Police nine will play the Walla Walla Flyers, and at 4:30 p.m. the Richland Baseball Team will play the Crane Rigging Team, current leaders in the Hanford Baseball League. Bleachers have been constructed for spectators at the games.
