1	TEQUILITA	20/1	Q4 circle is a cut below
2	IVY BELL	5/1	Back to optimal distance, never out of the exacta at 7f should be running on late, must negotiate clean trip
3	STILL THERE	12/1	Huge OptixFIG (107) in non-graded stakes at LRL, was it outlier? did switch go on? gets huge class challenge today
4	CAIRENN	15/1	Improving filly in good form gets class challenge, plots negatively as Q4 circle
5	FINLEY'SLUCKYCHARM	3/1	Win machine, did she peak last time?, medium sized circle clear in Q1, controls pace?, 1 nose victory in 4 G1 races at 7f
6	LEWIS BAY	3/1	Hasn't won any G1 races, but is always competitive, what will be tactics? sitting just off FINLEY'SLUCKYCHARM or pressing early?
7	MARLEY'S FREEDOM	5/2	Dramatic improvement since the switch to Baffert barn, plots beautifully as center square, did run a B in G1 stakes as 3 year old
8	UNION STRIKE	15/1	G1 winner at 2, better at sprinting, concerns around layoff lines, first time for Asmussen, plots as extremely deep in Q4

✓ WAGERING STRATEGY: Keying #7 MARLEY'S FREEDOM in exotics w/ #2 IVY BELL.

1	LIMOUSINE LIBERAL	3/1	A real gamer in career form, hasn't been off board in last 11 tries, however the 0-6 in G1 races is a legit concern
2	AWESOME SLEW	10/1	Using same pattern as last year, when he ran solid 2nd in this race, Q4 square better underneath at this level and pace scenario
3	WHITMORE	4/1	Major TROUBLE+ in G2 Bel Sprint, all wins at 6f, plots in Q4 in race not with a lot of speed signed up
4	HEARTWOOD	30/1	In career form, capable sprint trainer taking another shot at G1, didn't work out last time, but did have minor trouble
5	NO DOZING	12/1	Ran biggest OptixFIG (103) ever off 252d layoff, regressed in next race the last time he ran triple digit OptixFIG
6	C Z ROCKET	9/2	Lightly raced 4 yr old gets class test here after winning nicely B+ w/ PERFECT trip in non graded stake, broke maiden over track
7	WARRIOR'S CLUB	10/1	Looks to be just a cut below this level, chance for underneath slots
8	CITY OF LIGHT	9/5	7f specialist gets the right pace scenario and is the horse to beat

WAGERING STRATEGY: Keying #8 CITY OF LIGHT in exotics w/ #2 AWESOME SLEW (10/1)

1	GLORIOUS EMPIRE	10/1	Surprised in common race G2 last on LONE lead, not a ton of speed in here either, but turf was off that day
2	SPRING QUALITY	4/1	Lightly raced 6 year old in career form, benefited from PERFECT trips last two, and FLOW 3 back, got 18/1 last time, 4/1 on M/L today
3	FUNTASTIC	9/2	Progressive 4 year old benefited from FLOW last 2 races, last G1 race did not come back strong, plots well on STANDARD and SURF, mixed
4	HI HAPPY	6/1	Hard to back off poor effort in the G2 Bowling Green last
5	HIGHLAND SKY	12/1	Lost to others in common race last time, has not regained 3 year old form
6	BIGGER PICTURE	8/1	Marathon runner third in this race last year, can be part of exotics with right trip
7	CHANNEL MAKER	5/1	Not G1 material as a turf miler, excuse in the Manhattan, followed by a win in the Bowling Green, plots don't flatter
8	SEAHENGE	30/1	Trying turf again for top Euro connections, only long distance race was disappointing
9	REVVED UP	15/1	Should enjoy extra ground, some major class hurdles to overcome
10	SADLER'S JOY	7/2	Won this race last year and is likely favorite here, post and trip are always the concern with this deep closer

 WAGERING STRATEGY: Plot fit is red and we really don't have a lot of confidence. We will be spreading in all multi-race wagers. Tier-1 horses are 2,3,6 while 1,7,9,10 are Tier-2. Potential WIN bet on any horse Tier-1 horses at 5/1 or better. We have a little opinion about the #10 UNCLE LARRY in race 13 so we take a Pick-4 flyer singling him.

1	TRIGGER WARNING	30/1	Will be part of the early pace scenario, class and distance are major concerns
2	WONDER GADOT	5/1	Filly is talented, but G1 v. boys in Canada not the same as US graded stakes, only one win in 7 graded stakes races in US v. fillies, underlay?
3	GRONKOWSKI	4/1	Outran his odds in the BELMONT, but that was weird day when there was late overcast/rain, Euro races were ok, might be underlay
4	BRAVAZO	12/1	Ran well in loss to GOOD MAGIC in the G1 Haskell needs to improve and needs that one to regress a bit, contender
5	VINO ROSSO	10/1	Might be more of a G2 horse, distance will not be an issue
7	KING ZACHARY	15/1	Another lightly raced 3 year old who has the look of classic distance horse, exotic player at price
8	MENDELSSOHN	12/1	Might have a lot of people jumping off band wagon after his defeat in the G3 Dwyer, PLOT doesn't include G2 Dubai Derby, don't ignore yet
9	GOOD MAGIC	2/1	Logical favorite, good comeback in the G1 Haskell, if able to improve slightly he will be tough to beat, the only question mark to me is the 10f
10	TENFOLD	8/1	Talented 3 year old is capable, but OptixFIGs haven't really improved since Oaklawn in early spring, maybe today's the day, tough post, mixed
11	CATHOLIC BOY	8/1	Recent turf tries were huge, those efforts probably encouraged connections to give him another shot on dirt, training well

WAGERING STRATEGY: #9 GOOD MAGIC looks logical, reliable runner. #4 BRAVAZO ran well in the Haskell. #11 CATHOLIC BOY is in career form. #7 KING ZACHARY is a viable long shot exotics player. #8 MENDELSSOHN runs back to Dubai race he wins. Big IF. Watch board, thinking certain horses (#2 WONDER GADOT, #3 GRONKOWSKI, and #10 TENFOLD) might be overplayed.
