COURSE TITLE: ELT ASSESSMENT & EVALUATION LAB

COURSE CODE: ENG06LX02

L-T-P: 0-0-2

Pedagogy of the course: The objective of this course on introductory ELT Assessment & Evaluation Laboratory is to train students with the experiments based on description of how assessments of different skills (LSRW) is done, etc., how various kinds of language tests are designed, how their purposes are set, how they are analyzed. The students will also get hands-on training on how to use simple statistical and software tools for the said purpose. This will enable students to verify some of theoretical concepts based on said topics.

Evaluation method:
- Internal Assessment 20%
- Record Book/Practical File 20%
- End semester practical examination 60%

Instructions for End Semester Practical examination:
It shall be conducted by one internal and one external examiner. For end semester practical examination, the different components are as follows:

1. Conduct of Practical Examination:
   - Writing the Procedure of practical : 20 marks
   - Estimation and Analysis : 20 marks

2. Viva-Voce : 20 marks
3. Record Book/Practical File : 20 marks

The evaluation of practical file is done by giving equal weight age to the following:
- Accurate record of observations
- Collection of data
- Ability to interpret results
- Proficiency in reaching evidence based conclusions
- Quality of work

Note: Use of simple or scientific calculator and log table is allowed in the end semester practical exam.

LIST OF LAB EXPERIMENTS

Learning Point I: REVIEW OF STATISTICS
Lab 1
Basic statistics: Central tendencies: mean, median and mode, skewness

Lab 2
Groups and frequency analysis

Lab 3
Simple correlation and regression

Learning Point II: DESIGN
Lab 4
Design of multiple choice tests

Lab 5
Design of cloze tests

Learning Point III
Conducting tests and Stages of test construction- theory [Seminar format- Factors in administration of tests, Evaluation of this section based on Student presentation and description in lab book]

Lab 6-10
Testing language skills: testing listening; writing free writing; writing guided and free/ non-guided composition; Testing reading; Testing grammar and vocabulary different levels

Lab 11
Statistical analysis of test results
SKILL ENHANCEMENT COURSE
COURSE TITLE: RESEARCH IN LANGUAGE SCIENCES
COURSE CODE: ENG06KX01

Credit: L-T-P: 2-1-0
Total Credit Hours: 30

Pedagogy of the course:
The paper intends to expose students to research. The objective is to equip the students with the tools and materials of research, to acquaint them with the research process and various approaches towards research, and to train them in presenting their research. It makes the students understand some basic concepts of research and its methodologies, identify appropriate research topics, select and define appropriate research problem and parameters, prepare an abstract for a paper scholarly papers. It also aims to make the students able to organize and conduct research project/dissertation. Practical/Real world examples will be provided for the additional practice.
For the course 80 percent will be Class room teaching and 20 percent will be Internal Assessment comprising Unit test, Assignments and class room participation. The evaluation method for this course will be 20 percent Internal Assessment, 20 percent Multiple Choice questions Test, and 60 percent End semester examination.

Instructions for Paper Setters:
The end semester examination will be of 3 hours and 60 marks. The first question, which would be compulsory, shall be short answer type word limit 125 each. It would carry 06 short questions, spread over the whole syllabus. The candidate will be required to attempt all short answer type questions. Each short answer type question would carry two marks 2x6 = 12. Rest of the paper shall contain 4 units. Each unit shall have two questions and the candidates shall be required to attempt one question from each Unit four in all. Each question shall carry 12 marks 12x4 = 48.

UNIT I Objectives and Types of Research
- Motivation and Objectives of Research
- Plagiarism, Copyright and Copyleft), IPR
- Ethics of Research on Human Subjects, Protection of Information, Informed Consent, IRB

UNIT II Research Question-Literature Review-Formation of Hypothesis
Defining and Formulating the Research Problem - Selecting the Problem - Necessity of defining the problem - Importance of literature review in defining a problem – Literature review – Primary and secondary sources – reviews, treatise, monographs – patents – web as a source – searching the web - Critical literature review – Identifying gap areas from literature review - Development of working hypothesis.

UNIT III Research Design
- Research design – Basic Principles, Need, and Features of a good research design.
- Developing a research plan - Exploration, Description, Diagnosis, Experimentation. Determining experimental and sample designs, Examination of hypothesis.

UNIT IV Research Methods
Correlation and Regression of causal data in Language Sciences, Sample Dependent Tests of Significance: T-test and F-test

COURSE TITLE: WORKSHOP ON ACADEMIC COMMUNICATION
COURSE CODE: ENG06XX02

Credits: L-T-P: 3-0-0
Total Credit Hours: 30

Pedagogy:
The objective of the course is to enable students to acquire knowledge, concepts, methods and techniques of academic communication, and to make the students develop theoretical as well as practical aspects with communication skills in academic writing. The teaching methodology will involve classroom lectures. The students will learn about the theoretical premises of communication and its importance, as well as acquire skills essential for academic communication in the modern world. For the course, 80 percent will be Classroom teaching and 20 percent will be Internal Assessment comprising Unit test, Assignments and classroom participation/presentation. The evaluation method for this course will be 20 percent Internal Assessment, 20 percent Multiple Choice questions Test, and 60 percent End semester examination.

Instructions for Paper Setters:
The end semester examination will be of 3 hours and 60 marks. There shall be 9 questions in all. The first question, which would be compulsory, shall be short answer type word limit 125 each. It would carry 6 short questions, spread over the entire syllabus. The candidate will be required to attempt all the 6 short answer type questions. Each short answer type question would carry two marks 2x6 = 12. Rest of the paper shall contain 4 units. Each unit shall have two questions and the candidates shall be required to attempt one question. ONE question in the End semester exam will be from the each module in each unit eight in all) and student will have to answer either. Each question shall carry 12 marks 12x4 = 48.

Units 3 and 4 will be tested by a comprehensive Viva-voce examination as part of the Internal Assessment.

UNIT – 1: Basic Principles of Communication

Module II: Barriers to communication, Essentials of communication, Non-verbal and verbal communication, The Seven C’s of Communication

UNIT – 2: Types and Channels of Communication
Module I: Introduction, Types of Communication, psychology and pedagogy of communication

Module II: Formal Communication and Informal Communication, Communication- spoken and written

UNIT – 3: PROFESSIONAL COMPETENCE- 1
Module I: The Importance of Communication in the Workplace, Professionalism in Workplace Communication, interpersonal communication, communication for conflict management and resolution

Module II: Communication types: letters, memos, reports, emails
Project 1: Researching a Communication Report
Project 2: Writing a Formal Report

UNIT – 4: PROFESSIONAL COMPETENCE- 2
Module I: Role of presentations and displays in developing an idea, academic writing and technical writing

Module II: Visual presentations and charts
Project 3: Academic Presentations- Advanced Slideware & Infographics
Project 4: Analysis of Case Study

UNIT I Introduction to Research
What Research Is and Why People Do It
Research Skills VS Methods VS Methodologies
Research Interests, Topics, Questions, & Problems
Three Kinds of Sources: Primary, Secondary, & Tertiary
Locating Sources: Libraries, Internet, etc.
Plagiarism and Ethics of Research

UNIT II Research in Literature
What is literature, and what is a text?
Major genres in textual studies – Fiction, Poetry, Drama, Film
Theoretical Approaches to literature – Text-oriented, Author-oriented, Reader-oriented, Context-oriented
Literary critique or evaluation

Unit III Research Methods
• Archival Method
• Auto/biography as a Research Method
• Oral History as Research Method,
• Visual Methods
• Discourse Analysis,
• Ethnographic Methods
• Quantitative Methods
• Textual Analysis
• Interviewing
• English Research Methods and the Digital Humanities

COURSE TITLE: DISSERTATION
COURSE CODE: ENG06D401

Credit: 10

Pedagogy of the course

The objective of this paper is to sharpen the research aptitude of the learner. The students will be introduced to the research methodology, critical analysis of the given project as well as theoretical tools to carry out the research project. The dissertation is a compulsory component of the Master’s programme. No formal teaching would be offered in the department for this course. The evaluation of this project will be based on Viva-Voce (50 marks) as well as Dissertation (150 marks).

Instructions and Evaluation: The Dissertation carries carry maximum 10 credits and is spread over two Semesters, i.e. Semesters III and IV. The student shall prepare a dissertation under the supervision of assigned teacher of the department. She/he should also demonstrate the skills for the formulation of the research problem and the application of research tools. Total marks for the dissertation will be 200: 150 marks for the dissertation and 50 for the viva-voce examination. The viva-voce examination shall be held at the end of Semester IV and the students shall have to submit the dissertation by the 31\textsuperscript{st} May or the date specified by the department. If any student is unable to submit his/her dissertation within stipulated time without due permission, then the student will be considered as absent from the exam and have to re-appear in the exam as per university policy and regulations. The evaluation of dissertation and viva-voce should be done by the external examiner only. External examiner shall be appointed as per University rules and regulations. The dissertation shall be written in English language only to develop the writing and research skills of the students except for the language departments. The following criterion is adopted to evaluate the dissertation. The external examiner also reserves the right to modify the criteria for dissertation as per requirement of the topic of dissertation:

a) Criteria for Viva-voce

The external examiner will evaluate the presentation of the students using the following criteria:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Criteria</th>
<th>Marks</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Candidate’s ability to discuss her/his research with focus and clarity</td>
<td>15</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Depth of understanding: Candidate’s defense of findings, interpretations &amp; conclusions</td>
<td>10</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Presentation skills eye contact, expression, posture)</td>
<td>15</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Candidate’s use of data/evidence to support claims slides/handouts etc)</td>
<td>10</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

b) Criteria for evaluation of dissertation

The dissertation shall be evaluated by one external examiner. The examiner shall evaluate the dissertation on the basis of following criteria. The following factors and percentages are to be taken into consideration by the examiners when assessing the dissertation:
a) Explanation, contextualization and articulation of research problem and objectives 20%, Marks=30):
   - Is the research problem clearly specified and contextualized?
   - Are the research questions and hypotheses clearly formulated?
   - Does the dissertation identifies the relevance, rationale and objectives of the proposed research?

b) Literature and/or technology review, as relevant 20%, Marks=30):
   - Does the report include a comprehensive review and critical discussion of the relevant literature and/or technological developments?
   - Is there a description on how the proposed research positions itself within the generic context of works which have been published in the area?

c) Methodology, design and implementation 20%, Marks=30):
   - Is the adopted methodology and/or design approach clearly justified and described?
   - Is the implementation well explained?
   - Have any novel theoretical contributions from the student been rewarded appropriately?
   - Is there any clear identification of any limitations, assumptions and constraints which may influence or condition in applying the methodology, and design approach?

d) Testing, results, analysis and evaluation 20%, Marks=30):
   - Are the test procedures logical and objective?
   - Do the proposed tests address the research problem being investigated?
   - Are the test conditions, assumptions, constraints and limitations clearly identified?
   - Are the results clearly presented, analyzed objectively and critically evaluated?
   - Are the results and analyses discussed objectively? Do they lead to appropriate conclusions and/or fulfillment of the project aims?
   - Does the analysis, evaluation and discussion of results exhibit independence of thought?
   - Has any novelty in this regard been rewarded appropriately?

e) Report structure and organization of dissertation 20%, Marks=30):
   - Is the style and structure of the dissertation logical, coherent, flowing and focused?
   - Is the student’s contribution clearly communicative to the reader?
   - Does the report conform to the faculty guidelines?
   - Does it make good use of language, citations, figures and tables?
