

Differentiating Learning with iPads

Course Syllabus

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Whether you've received a set of Apple iPads to use in your classroom or you're curious about the benefits of an iPad curriculum, there are many valuable resources to guide you. In this course, discover and explore how to transform your current teaching methodologies and classroom's curriculum with one of education's most popular technology tools.

Learn about iPad apps designed to meet the needs of students with special needs, English language learners, and students in GATE programs. Discover ways to use the iPad's features to differentiate instruction and make learning accessible to all learners.
