Billions of women are denied the same choice of employment as men

They are barred from certain jobs in over 100 countries

... jobs in 104 countries (see map). Some countries publish lists of jobs deemed too dangerous for women (Russia's 456 include driving a train or steering a ship). Others stop women from working in entire sectors, at night or in "morally inappropriate" jobs (in Kazakhstan women cannot bleed or stun cattle, pigs or small ruminants). In four countries women cannot register a business. In 18 a husband can stop his wife working.
