A trustee must be a team player and always defend the decisions of the board, even if the trustee disagrees with those decisions.
All business of the board should be dealt with in open public sessions except when the board is required to protect the privacy of employees or students.				X
Trustees should actively consult with constituents and school councils on important policy matters.				X
At times, school boards need to take more active public stands on education issues, even if it means being critical of the provincial government.				X
The provincial government has seriously undermined the power and authority of trustees and school boards.					X

Education is adequately funded. School boards can live within their means by "cutting fat".
If a school board cannot balance its budget without harmful cuts to education programs, it should be prepared to run a deficit.
Provincial funding for building and maintaining schools is adequate.				X
Provincial funding should be sufficient to cover increases to teacher and staff contracts.

1. Should the provincial government continue to use Public Private Partnerships (P3s) for building new schools, what guidelines would you propose be placed on P3 contracts?

Private sector businesses can operate schools more cheaply and efficiently and should be allowed to do so.
The financing, construction and maintenance of a school should be undertaken as a public private partnership.
Parents should be expected to contribute towards the cost of their children's education by paying school fees and fundraising.
School boards should ban commercial advertising in schools.
Students should be provided with all necessary books and learning materials at no cost.

The public interest is best served by schools that are publicly owned and operated.

To address funding shortfalls, schools should be allowed to have corporate sponsors, including naming rights.

Additional government funding should be provided to address the infrastructure deficit.
Community schools with small enrolments should be closed so that larger schools can offer more programs.
The school board should work with the province to provide wrap around services in schools.
Some schools should be closed so that the province will build new schools in new neighbourhoods.
Schools are a part of the community and should be open to other community activities.
Boards should advocate for changing the province's school utilization formula to account for space used in after school care and other community uses.					X
