

St Marys
Baywater.

Aug. 1 1859

My dearest Child,

I was hoping to hear of your dear Mother this morning.

As to the course you have taken - it has been quite right, especially in what you said about reading the word - In future always have your books ready. I should think you'd find something in Quakerism's the world - or in Novels. You can use Dr. Pusey's translation, or best of all the Bible.

Next as to the future. Pray with her when you read, but not with the Van Eyck. This is of principle.

And it will be the most fertile conceiving, unceasing way of bearing witness to the divine law or faith.

I have just compiled from what you tell me, in these two notes,

From the last I shall hope for some word or act. Most I shall hope greatly - for she is making all the spiritual work - & we may hope that some imperfection or deficiency of international right exists.

I will come down at any moment on my knees. God bless & comfort you. Always yours as I am.

1846.
