

Baywater.

Feb. 16. 1865.

My dear Child,

Many thanks for your note.

I arrived on Sunday morning at 8 o'clk, after 68 hours of constant travelling, in time to catch the last three days

& nights of the Cardinals itinerary. He recognized me for a moment. His end was without pain:

o his last illness brought out the noblest examples of patience and faith.

Thank you I am well
but a little tired.

I was in Rome seven days. but I saw the Holy Father twice, & finished all the work I went to do.

With my kind regards to Mr Patman, believe me, Always as ever yours
A. P. Manning.
