

8, YORK PLACE. W. Nov. 7. 1867

My dear Child,

Many thanks for your note. I always think of Livingston at All Holland's.
It was very beautiful, & peaceful, with the drawing in of the year. If only there were the True Fold under the South down it would be a beautiful world indeed.

I send you a letter <sup>(I cannot find it just now)</sup>
from Mr Randall,
who sent me a little
book I had given him
asking me to write his name in it.

He seems a good man & looks as if he were afloat.

I have fallen into her
vulgar language lately,

in reading the Times.
What a wonderful crisis there has been, & how well the little army
has behaved.

What an infamy on the Christian world: &
what a pit of hypo-
cisy is Florence.

With my kind regards
to your husband.

Yours affly,
+ A. M. Smith

I could find you a Priest. Will not fail
if I can.
