

ARCHBISHOP'S HOUSE,
WESTMINSTER,
S.W.

Feb 21. 1876.

My dear Child,

No one of my girls at home ought to keep you from your cousin. They are not accidental pieces of cloth; she was a sensible mother's lover.

Don't delay when I write your letters the time is lost.

Give her my love & thank her for sending her to me

Tell me exactly when she is.

I may be in the Neighbourhood next month.

If you come to London mind you come home, & say - that message against the dumb devil. This is a bad devil. And you have no need of him with me. Get on with you.

Yours truly

W. C. A.
