

30 Old Huntington St
June 29

Mrs. Chisholm lives at No 3, Charlton Crescent, Huntington

I fear she is not to be seen anywhere else, as her time is occupied, in these days, every hour. From there till after Friday, as till Friday she will be at the docks with her ship.

On Wednesday & Thursday evenings she has group meetings at 8 o'clock P.M.

National Dispensary Hall Copplegate.

But the evening at her home after Friday is the best time to see her.

Your name will, of course, be known to her. But if you wish to be introduced, I enclose a note, if you will not think it impertinent of me to offer an introduction to you.

As soon as I have seen today Kottow, which I shall do, by your kind permission, if the five we hope of a vacancy, I shall go down to Richmond & with the assistance of the police, track & try to persuade this poor thing to go with me at once to Kensington as the mother, who is a poor peckish thing, would not keep her at home even for a night.

If I fail, do you think you could, do you think you would undertake it yourself? It seems a great deal to ask - but she would not resist you.

God bless you for your tender mercy to this poor child.

Honourable Nightingale

[Faint, illegible handwriting, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page. The text is mirrored and difficult to decipher.]