

a meeting. Believe me still ever Nov. 5, Yours most sincerely H. W. M.
1839

My dear Pearson. Rather than put off writing till today when I shd have time to write a longer letter, I write immediately a few lines. I truly, would to hear it is thought even advisable to leave England again: but am glad that you are going to do so. Good not say how you are in health & only leave me to guess. Write me a fuller account before you go.

My advice to you wd be to go by Paris to Chalons by land, thence to Marseille by steam down the Rhone, & thence up by steam to Civita Vec.
Chia. Then 45 miles will bring you to Rome.

Get lodgings if possible in the Piazza di Spagna on the East side so as to get the Sun, this is most important. If you cannot get lodging there, try in the neighbourhood of the Colosseum near the Piazza del Popolo, always the

Dear Pearson, that I believe we sometimes calculate our real attachment in either side. We use so seldom

East side. Or in the Via de Condotti a Via della Mucedda on the North side do as to get sun. Try first at a house at the corner of the Via Laurina, looking out the Corso no 44 (I think) This the corner house kept by Signora Laura Tabij. She knows me. Young Harriem lodged there. The door is in the Via Laurina, the " going from the Corso. Use my name.

As to dining there is in the Via de Condotti a Trattoria. Leprie on the right hand (from the Corso) near the end. This you can see as all the Roman Trattorie are subterranean, but on the whole I believe the best. But go to the top of the house to the viceria.

There is an English Grocer. Lode Piazza di Spagna who will find you in the way of shabby or worst.
Have little dealing with Tolomea

(the Banker).

I don't know of any one going.
I have passport from Lord Pal. merston. I advise you to have one tho' you may never find the advantage of it & it cost you £2. yet sometimes it is useful. May be jealous of French P.G.

When you get to Rome call on Hutchinson the English Chaplain, & use my name.
I am sure he will be of use to you if he can.

When do you go? Might I ask of you to take look for me to Rome?

Excuse the haste for I am going on business to my Pop: and can only say my
