March 21, 1843.

Dear Sir,

A nephew of mine, the Rev. W. H. An...,地 a very excellent-and promising young man, is on the point of writing (at his own cost) a Pamphlet on the Manufacturing Populations. He wishes
That your name might stand on the Title as Publisher, I have deemed it my duty to make that request to you. If it should be an inconvenient step, I do not think it so.

Believe me, dear Sir,

Yours faithfully,

J. B. Manning
