My dear Friend,

I have just got home,
a few days from Yorktown,
I am afraid but I had have missed a letter from you about young Wynd ham. Let me have a line wth taxicota, and with kind regards to Mrs Colridge

believe me,

Ever yrs affly

H. S. Manning.

At last I return the enclosed with great thanks.

Laurelton. Feast of St. J. Sw. 1804.

My dear Friend,

In my note yesterday
I forgot to mention about the Oxford business.

I shall vote with all decision agt- the Statute on Subscription in all its parts.

As to Wards book, I shall
1. either not vote at all - because tho' I think it

open to the course, I can not join in charging him with bad faith.

I believe him boisterously & contemptuously honest.

And I think the deprivation of degrees
an ultimate penalty
not to be inflicted in the first instance.

2. Or I shall vote aye
it simply to protect the person from an untimely charge,

and a sentence prematurely severe.

Yours affly

H. S. Manning.

Believe me,

Dear Sir!

Your faithful servant.

H. E. Manning.
