

Lavington - Petworth.

Oct 15. 1846.

Dear Madam,

A letter from Mrs Milnes Gaskell has this morning discovered to me a mistake into which I have fallen in believing that the letter I received some time back on the subject of the National Tribute to Mr Wilder.
Yours
J. P.

Archdeacon
Manning

was written by her.

I therefore hasten to enact my mistake without delay.

The small contribution!
was able to offer had been already given through a person making collections for that purpose in Chichester.

Allow me to express my thankfulness if any thing of mine has been of any use to you. I wish it were more.

Believe me,

My dear Madam,

Yours very faithfully

A. S. Manning.
