

Livington Nov 9 1845.

My dear Mrs Erskine,

It is very kind of you after my many failures to be trouble d with such a guest: & it will give me very great pleasure to come to Little Green on Tuesday next. if the malign influences will at last permit. I assure you that I have really regretted the many kind & vain invitations you have given me. But I know no instance in which it was free to choose.

With my kindest regards to Mr Eskinie and your daughter believe me,

Yours very sincerely,

H. E. Manning.
