HISTORY OF APPLING METHODIST CHURCH

THE YEAR 1875 IS AS FAR BACK AS INFORMATION CAN BE OBTAINED ON THE RECORD OF THE APPLING METHODIST CHURCH. THE BUILDING WAS BLOWN DOWN BY THE TORNADO OF 1875. IT WAS REBUILT, BUT BY WHOM I DO NOT KNOW. THE PULPIT FACED THE SOUTH ABOUT 1900. IT WAS CHANGED TO FACE THE NORTH ALONG ABOUT 1915 AND WAS CHANGED BACK TO FACE THE SOUTH IN 1940. AS BEST AS I CAN FIND OUT ABOUT THE PRECHERS IS; THE WAY THEIR NAMES ARE LISTED IS THE WAY THEY CAME FROM 1875 TO THE PRESENT TIME.

H. R. SMITH
J. H. LITTLE
J. R. ALLEN (father of Charles Allen, who is now
B. F. MIZE preching in Atlanta, Georgia.)
TOM RORIE
