

Cochran Methodist Church
Ellijay Circuit.

The Cochran Methodist Church we founded by Dr. C. B. Cochran, present pastor of the Pattillo Memorial Methodist Church, Decatur, Georgia.

It began as a mission with Sunday School organized in July 1947.

A revival and a vacation Bible School was held in a tent the following summer, in June 1948.

Following this revival an adequate building was erected, and it was dedicated in June 1949.

Since that time it has been an active Church, and its future is assured by two Christian people who are devoting all their time to its welfare, and the welfare of the children around it.

The following pastors have served this Church. Rev. Henry Helton; Rev. M. H. Smith; Rev. J. B. Orr; Rev. Claud Patterson; and Rev. C. H. Wheelis.

This Church was named for its founder Rev. C. B. Cochran.
