

Cumming Charge
Piedmont

The Methodists bought Antioch Baptist Church, in the year 1883 and erected a new building 1884.

Their first-pastor was the Rev. John M. Armstrong. They worshipped at this site until 1912.

The Baptists bought the church back with the privilege of keeping the name.

The Methodist congregation ~~in~~ that year 1912, erected a new building on the Atlanta-Dawsonville Highway No 19. ~~Two~~^{Two} miles above Cumming, Ga.

In 1912 it was dedicated and given the name Piedmont.
