SBL NOTICES

CENTENNIAL ADDRESS, WEDNESDAY, 8:00-9:30 P.M. GRAND BALLROOM

The Honorable Yigael Yadin regrets he is unable to attend the Annual Meeting because of urgent State business. His Centennial Address is therefore cancelled.

Please attend Langdon Gilkey's Centennial Address on Wednesday, 8:00-9:30 P.M., in STEMMONS.

ANNUAL MEETING PROGRAM CHANGES

In the event that there are any changes in meeting rooms or times due to unforeseen program conflicts which are not announced in the Program Supplement, please consult the Information Booth bulletin board in the Loews Anatole lobby. Also check the Loews video screens throughout the building.
SBL NOTICES

NEH CONFERENCE GRANT

A word of appreciation is expressed to the National Endowment for the Humanities which awarded the Society of Biblical Literature a Conference Grant in the amount of $8200.00 to underwrite expenses of certain aspects of the Centennial Program.

EXHIBITS

Program, P. 8
Dr. James Branshler, and the Institute for Antiquity and Christianity are responsible for the exhibit "Ancient Scribes and Modern Scholars."
Dr. Jerry D. Campbell, of Perkins School of Theology, is responsible for the exhibit "Institutions and the Advancement of Scholarship."
Dr. John Hollar, of Fortress Press, is responsible for the exhibit "Publishers and the Advance of Scholarship."
The Society extends a word of gratitude to them for their work on its behalf.

CENTENNIAL BANQUET

Tickets are still available for the SBL Centennial Banquet, to be held in the Grand Ballroom Saturday evening, beginning at 7:00. You will not want to miss this Celebration of 100 years of the Society of Biblical Literature. It will be a memorable occasion. Tickets are available.

Tickets for the Centennial Banquet may be picked up at the Information Booth. If you have already paid for your ticket, identify yourself at the Information Booth and you will be given your ticket.

COMMITTEE ON AWARDS

Program, P. 15
The following people, whose names were inadvertently omitted, also served on the Committee on Awards:

Patrick D. Miller, Jr.
Harry Orlinsky
Ernest Saunders

The Society is grateful for their efforts on its behalf.
SBL DISSERTATION SERIES

The editor of the SBL Dissertation Series encourages faculty to submit dissertations of their better students to William Baird of Texas Christian University for consideration for publication.

Thanks are extended to the many scholars who have given of their time in the review of dissertations. I encourage others to serve the Society in the same way when requested. The review of dissertations is an imposition on the scholar's busy schedule, yet prompt and expert reviewing is a service to the writer's career and the ongoing success of the Series.

William Baird,
Editor, SBL Dissertation Series

FELLOWSHIPS

Applications are now being received for fellowships to be awarded by the Center for Biblical Research and Archives at Claremont, California, for the academic year 1981-82. These fellowships are awarded for study at the Center in Claremont, and are a joint project of the SBL, the Claremont School of Theology, and the Institute for Antiquity and Christianity. The fellowships carry stipends of up to $10,000, depending on the availability of funds and the financial requirements of the recipients. They are awarded to the most highly qualified applicants in two categories: scholars on leave from their academic positions, and post-doctoral junior scholars. Although the awards are normally given for a full academic year, applicants may request aid for a shorter period of time. These fellowships are open to all members of the SBL, and are granted to those applicants whose research projects are judged to contribute significantly to acknowledged needs and interests of the disciplines of biblical scholarship, to be related to the research of SBL Seminars and other projects, to be suitable for pursuit at Claremont, and to those who have made efforts to secure funding elsewhere in addition to the Center fellowships.

Application forms for fellowships for the academic year 1981-82 may be secured from Dr. James Brashler, the Institute for Antiquity and Christianity, 831 Dartmouth Avenue, Claremont, CA 91711. The completed forms must be submitted by February 1, 1981. Awards are announced to the candidates by 15 March, and must be accepted by 15 April. The current fellow is Professor George Wesley Buchanan, Wesley Theological Seminary, Washington, D.C.
