AFTERNOON

Herbal Bath Wand Creation - See main page for video

Take this sacred time to go for a walk and gather herbs and flowers so you may make a wand; this will be infused with your intentions for the abundance you're celebrating.

As a reminder, here are some of the ingredients you may be called to use:

-  Selection of natural herbs from your garden or local store - can include anything that you feel drawn to (lavender, sage, rosemary, mullen, roses, calendula). Or, as stated above, you may be called to take a walk to gather these
-  Piece of twine or string
-  Bath or shower

Bathing Ritual - See main page for video

Create a Ceremonial Bath/Shower. When you do, infuse yourself with love, cleaning away whatever is complete and done in your life, making more room for abundance and celebration!

Evening Self-Love Massage Ritual - See main page for video

Enjoy a guided self-love breast massage to deepen into self-intimacy as a practice to open your heart and body to an abundance of pleasure at your fingertips!

Feel free to use jojoba or coconut oil mixed with any of your favorite essential/holy oils for this practice.
