PASTORAL NARRATION: It was the greatest demonstration of love that the world would ever know. God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son. And this Son came as a Lamb. He would become a conquering King, but He came as a Lamb. He would be the King of kings and the Lord of lords, but He came... as a Lamb. And He came... for you.
PASTORAL NARRATION: Shepherds came seeking this Lamb, and their lives would never be the same. The angelic hosts formed a choir, and lifted their voices from the heavenlies. Wise men were wise enough to seek and bow down to this Lamb. He came to seek and to save the lost. He came...because He loves you. It's great to know that God so loved the world, but more important to know that God loves you.
Now here it is, man-y years have passed. They say His time has come and passed. But I'm so glad that it still re-

ASTORAL NARRATION (with more energy): John looked over the horizon and saw One walking as no man had ever walked. And he said, "Behold, the Lamb of God, Who takes away the sin of the world. He's still saving, He's still redeeming, and He's still there for you today. Receive Him, say YES to Him, and He will change your life forever. Time cannot change Him, and ages do not time Him; He is STILL THE LAMB OF GOD!!
