The Story Verse

 And as ye would that men should do to you, do ye also to them likewise.

Luke 6:31

 Read the stories below. At the bottom of the page, write the names of children who did not obey the Golden Rule. Then write what they should have done.

- “I’m the biggest, so I get to choose first,” said Sam, holding the bag of candy above his sisters’ heads.
- When the children lined up for drinks, June said, “Ann, did you know your scarf is on the playground? I stepped on it as I was running in.”
- Jerry’s pencil broke while he was taking a speed test. Rodney quickly gave him the one he was using, then found another one for himself.
- “I’ll help clean,” Reba said. “But I won’t put away anything I didn’t get out.”
- “Follow me. I’ll take you to your classroom,” said Fred.

The Story Verse

 Lo, I am with you always. Matthew 28:20

Andy could not understand how God could hear him pray way up in heaven. But since the Bible said so, he believed it.

We cannot understand how Jesus can be with us when we can't see Him. But we believe it because He said He would always be with us.

Jesus and Me

 Think of a place where you are sometimes all by yourself. In the space below, draw a picture of yourself in that place. Write Jesus in all the lines to show that Jesus is with you all the time.
