

Forgotten Thank You's – Study Words

- |                        |                               |
|------------------------|-------------------------------|
| 1. leopards (lə•pərdz) | 7. potatoes (pə•tā•tōz)       |
| 2. healed (hēld)       | 8. sauce (sòs)                |
| 3. lepers (lə•pərs)    | 9. chocolate (chä•kə•læt)     |
| 4. awful (ò•fəl)       | 10. splinter (splĭn•tər)      |
| 5. roast (rōst)        | 11. fizzy (fĭ•zē)             |
| 6. mashed (mäshd)      | 12. sandwiches (sänd•wĭch•əz) |

Study Word Meanings

 Write the word or words called for below.

1. Two things that are living.

leopards, lepers, (potatoes)

2. Which word means to make very hot over a fire?

roast

3. A tiny piece of wood from a larger piece of wood.

splinter

4. Which is something you could make?

sandwiches, sauce, chocolate

5. Two things you can eat.

chocolate, sandwiches, sauce, roast, potatoes

Read the story “Forgotten Thank You’s.”

Can You Tell Why?

Mother said Tommy forgot to tell her thank you because he was thinking only of himself.

-  Below are things you may have seen happen. Can you guess why? Write what you think on the line.

6. The mailman stopped at your mailbox because

Teacher Check

7. The baby began to cry when the balloon popped because

Teacher Check

8. The lady put up her umbrella because

Teacher Check

9. Mother got out a cookbook because

Teacher Check

10. Daddy put some wood in the stove because

Teacher Check

11. Yellow leaves fell off the trees because

Teacher Check

12. You are doing this page because

Teacher Check

One, or More Than One?

You know that s on the end of some words makes them mean more than one: bat – bats. But there are many words that end in s that do not mean more than one: bus. Also some words that mean more than one do not end in s.

 Read the words below. Think if they mean one or more than one. After each word circle all three words (more than one) or just the word one (more than one).

- |           |                      |            |                      |
|-----------|----------------------|------------|----------------------|
| 13. men   | more than one | 18. people | more than one |
| 14. me    | more than one | 19. it     | more than one |
| 15. baby  | more than one | 20. this   | more than one |
| 16. kiss  | more than one | 21. us     | more than one |
| 17. these | more than one | 22. many   | more than one |

Alphabetical Order

 The words in each set begin with the same letters. Look at the second letters and write the words in ABC order.

- |                       |                |                 |               |
|-----------------------|----------------|-----------------|---------------|
| 23. book – brick      | 1. book | 2. brick |               |
| 24. nose – near       | 1. near | 2. nose  |               |
| 25. top – test – tall | 1. tall | 2. test  | 3. top |
| 26. lug – like – lost | 1. like | 2. lost  | 3. lug |

Words With Two Meanings

One of the Study Words has two meanings. Roast means “a piece of meat.” It also means “to make something very hot.”

 Write roast in the blanks. Read the sentence.

1. We had a roast for dinner.
2. When shall we roast the peanuts?

Homographs (hä•mə•gräfs)

Words that are spelled the same but have two meanings are called homographs.

 In the box are four homographs. Write each one in two of the blanks to make good sentences.

3. Joe did not go to school because his ear hurt.
4. There is a worm on that ear of corn.
5. Daddy will row the boat across the lake.
6. Bradley liked to keep his toys in a nice row.
7. I saw the robin feed its babies.
8. You will need a saw to cut off that branch.
9. Our class went to visit a coal mine.
10. Is this mine or yours?

saw
row
mine
ear

The Story Verse

 And be ye thankful. Colossians 3:15

 "Thank you" was one of the first things you learned to say. In this verse God says we should do more than say Thank you. We should feel thankful in our hearts. You can't be thankful in your heart unless you think of things to be thankful for.

Below are the titles of some stories from the reader. At the bottom of the page are things that people in the stories should have been thankful for.

 Match by writing a letter in each box.

11.  Nell's Dried Onions
12.  Mr. Doodleburger Comes to Work
13.  Emmy and the Big Black Dog
14.  Why Henry Was Late
15.  Baby Insect
16.  Captain or Deck Hand

- a. That God made beautiful and interesting things.
- b. That her son liked to work and help her.
- c. That a strange boy had a kind heart.
- d. That a little brother forgave him for being selfish.
- e. That her Grandma loved her enough to send a gift.
- f. That God took away her fear.