When We Fail

Though the believer in Christ is given the Holy Spirit to understand God's will, and though he is offered the grace to overcome all opposition, there will be times when he fails his Lord. And it's dangerous.

A particular trap awaits the erring disciple, and that is discouragement. Initial failure can lead to tragedy when a believer, overwhelmed by guilt, thinks he has ruined his life and abandons hope. In Corinthians we read of a repentant backslider who caused Paul so much concern that he encouraged the church to confirm their love for him, lest he be overcome with much sorrow.

Proverbs 13:12 says, "Hope deferred maketh the heart sick." Some people eventually die spiritually because they listen to the lies of the enemy. "You have messed up your life. You are a failure. There is no hope for you." These are common whispers of the wicked one.

But what does God say?

In Revelation, Jesus sent messages to churches which had all manner of sin, but to each one he gave room for repentance. "As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten: be zealous therefore, and repent" (Rev. 3:19).

Though he cannot accept sin, Psalm 145:8 says, "The LORD is gracious, and full of compassion; slow to anger, and of great mercy."

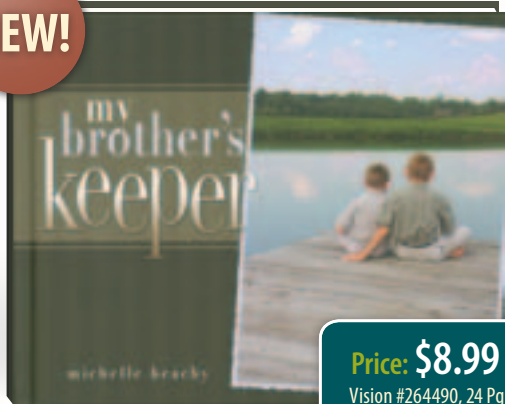

Jesus says that if 100 sheep are in the fold, and one shall stray, the Good Shepherd searches for the lost sheep. Jesus is that Good Shepherd. He cares for us. He already died for us. He's at the right hand of the Father interceding for us today. If we ever stray, He wants us back.

"The LORD is gracious, and full of compassion; slow to anger, and of great mercy."
– Psalm 145:8

THE TWILA STORIES

Johnny Ruhl

*Not so long ago but far, far away there was a godly young woman named Twila who loved the Lord. She lived in a country called Bolivia near the village of Santa Rosa del Sara. Twila lived by herself in a small house next to one of the elders. She had cows and chickens and a horse named Good-Boy. Well crafted and delightfully told, The Twila Stories speak straight to* the heart whether read silently or aloud to others.

Reader Worksheets

Classroom schools have said, "We like the CLE readers, but could the student material be in worksheet format?" We listened and are releasing the preliminary edition of the Grade 3 Reader Worksheets to go with our hardcover reader, Doors to Discovery. We will refine these worksheets using feedback from users. The worksheets are bound in two booklets, each containing 30 two-page lessons for a total of 60 lessons. Quizzes and tests are sold separately. A Teacher's Guide gives daily lesson notes with tips for introducing stories and discussing them with your class, and includes reproductions of student pages with answers filled in. Worksheets for Grade 2 will be available in 2011. Other grades will follow as we finish them. Call for pricing info.

To the staff who helped us on our tour,
 We did get a chance to visit and really enjoyed our time there! Everyone was so pleasant and helpful. My children LOVED seeing where their LightUnits were printed. One of our favorite things was to see the section where the orders are filled. OH...I almost forgot the ART department! My son absolutely loved that because he's taken an interest in art recently....and even got to show some of his work to a young artist there! He was THRILLED! So, again....thank you. We were so blessed by our visit. I just love "field trips" like that!

Blessings,
 Cherie' in NJ

Many parents see the importance of family worship, but struggle to find material suitable for their whole family. Fruitful Families addresses that need. The book's overall theme of growing spiritual fruit is broken into ninety-one lessons—enough for a quarter of a year. Each day's lesson consists of two parts. The first part is especially for Dad and Mom and older children while the second part consists of a reading from a continued children's story. This story is related to that week's theme and includes discussion questions which apply the theme to everyday life.
