Why I Do Not Cease Teaching and Writing

Yea, I repeat, that if you sincerely accepted and believed the divine goodness, mercy, and the ineffable love of our beloved Lord Jesus Christ toward you, namely, that by his ardent love he became an humble mortal man for you; came down from high heaven into these lower parts of the earth, taught and preached unto you the eternal kingdom of God, performed miracles, prayed, suffered tribulation, anxiety, apprehension and prison; that he was beaten, mocked, derided, spit upon, scourged, crowned with thorns, drenched with gall and vinegar, blasphemed, crucified and was buried for you; was again raised up, ascended to heaven, seated at the right hand of the Father; and that by his precious blood he became your faithful Servant, Reconciler, Deliverer, Mediator, and Advocate;

if you believe all this, you would, doubtlessly, love him who has shown you such great love. You would return the love with which he has loved you and yet loves you. You would, verily, not tire of seeking and following him. For true evangelical faith is of such a nature that it cannot lay dormant; but manifests itself in all righteousness and works of love; it dies unto flesh and blood; destroys all forbidden lusts and desires; cordially seeks, serves, and fears God; clothes the naked; feeds the hungry; consoles the afflicted; shelters the miserable; aids and consoles all the oppressed; returns good for evil; serves those that injure it; prays for those that persecute it; teaches, admonishes, and reproves with the Word of the Lord; seeks that which is lost; binds up that which is wounded; heals that which is diseased and saves that which is sound.

OUT OF THE DEPTHS Rachael Lofgren

Set against the backdrop of war-torn Ukraine, the story of Ludmilla is of struggle and triumph. While yet in her teens, Ludmilla faces harsh realities as she experiences the trumatic deaths of her parents and plans a wedding she doesn't want. Join Ludmilla on her journey as she pushes through each challenge and finally learns to trust in the God who would never let her go.

LIFE IS A GIFT Jenny Miller

Jenny counted her newborn baby's fingers and toes, amazed at God's tremendous gift of life. But the gift did not develop as she hoped. Her precious baby girl had serious medical problems. As her dreams crumbled around her, Jenny wrestled with the God she knew only as secure, faithful, and loving. Now God seemed unpredictable, confusing, and distant. Didn't He see her tears? Didn't He hear her prayers? In this tender and deeply personal story Jenny shares in vivid detail her struggle to accept the journey God chose for her—surrendering to His will and choosing to walk with Him, step by aching step, into the unknown. Through brokenness, she gained peace, comfort, even joy—and a far deeper understanding that life—all life—is a gift from God.

THE HIGH COST OF HOLISTIC HEALING Dr. Nolan Byler

A concise guide to alternative medicine with a wealth of information on questionable practices, some of which are nothing less than the works of darkness. Drawing from years of experience as a medical doctor and as a pastor, Dr. Byler delivers a passionate and compelling examination of practices such as acupuncture, iridology, water witching, applied kinesiology, and powwowing and points out the spiritual dangers that accompany them.

DEATH OF A SALOON

Pablo Yoder Teodolinda and her family moved to the Zapotal highlands of Costa Rica to find a better life. But life there became a cycle of drudgery, moon-shining, and fighting. Vowing to change, Teodolinda lit candles to saints and chanted prayers, but her family only slid deeper into sin. Amid this darkness Teodolinda discovered God and His power. Parts of the story are depressing reading, but the wonderful message of this book is the redemption that Christ gives.

Common sounds outside our CLP offices these days are sounds of air nailers, saws, and other construction machines. So what is happening? Following our Writers and Artists' Conference last year, we began to realize that our facility could no longer accommodate the ever growing crowds. In addition to the Writers' Conference needs, we were also running out of office space for curriculum development personnel. The old office building was built, added to, and put together from around 1938 to 1980 in nine different installments, resulting in diverse types of structures, different floor levels, and varying roof and wall lines. We decided to fill in some of the zigs and zags with new walls, giving us more space. The new part will be two-story with a large meeting room that can be divided into two smaller rooms, a kitchen, larger restrooms, and ten more offices. We are eager for it to be finished, and are hoping to move in before the end of the year.

LITTLE PENNSYLVANIA DUTCH BOY

Sharon Schnupp Kuepfer

Seven-year-old Clair ran to get the mail. Ever since Daddy left half a year ago, he wrote home twice a week from Virginia where he was building roads with other men who wouldn't fight in the war. God, Clair prayed silently, will you please let me see my daddy again soon? Would the war ever end?

God's Miracle- a Frog

"Don't you think that frogs are special?

They are miracles God planned!

When you see a frog that's hopping,

Think about God's mighty hand."

Detailed pencil drawings illustrate the simple rhyming story of the life cycle of a frog. God planned it all, from laying eggs to leaping frogs. The fifth book in the God's Miracle series.
