

Love what is right. Do not get sidetracked with worldly things.

Print every other letter on the lines in the train's smoke. The first letter is done for you. Because of the choo-choo train, spell the first word with one extra o.

The Bible says that our days here on earth are like grass and flowers that are soon faded. (Psalm 103:15, 16)

Life is short; seek God while you are young.

Color the dandelions. They are bright yellow for only a short time and then they are gone.

LIFE IS SHORT—SEEK GOD NOW!

We learn how to love from God. We are to try to love the things He loves and hate the things He hates. God not only shows mercy and kindness, but demands justice, righteousness, and truth.

Who is the beginning of love? Color in the letters with a "1" in them to find out.

Actions speak louder than words. Helping your mother and being good will show that you love her.

Draw a picture of your mother in the frame.
