In the beginning, God created a world where all of nature worked together to create a harmonious song. Your home needs more than just noise; it needs a song. Some songs are livelier than others, but everyone has a place to fill in the song of your home.

ADULT CLASSES

1.1 Establishing the Pulse of Your Family – Dan Christensen

Parents set the tone for the atmosphere of the home, and that pulse makes a difference for every family member. Music is one way we can shape our family's culture. Let's consider that and other practical ways we can lead our family's "song."

Panel Discussion

Panelists both musically gifted and not will discuss questions related to the practical application of music in the home, including developing an appreciation of good music as well as safeguarding exposure to ungodly music.

TEENS' CLASSES

1.2 The Song of Your Heart (for teen boys) – Allen Yutzky

We may not always be aware of it, but we each have an internal "song" going on inside us. What kind of song is your heart singing? Is it a song that inspires others or focuses on self? The music you are drawn to both expresses and influences that inner song. What else besides music leads your heart's song? Let's talk about music, relationships, and other "song leaders."

1.3 The Song of Your Heart (for teen girls) – Betty Yutzky

We may not always be aware of it, but we each have an internal "song" going on inside us. What kind of song is your heart singing? Is it a song that inspires others or focuses on self? How do you deal with sour notes or clashes and keep the space clear between you and your teenager?

Although no two days are alike, some homes have a consistent daily schedule that provides a foundation of security for the whole family. Come learn ways to establish a daily schedule with a natural rhythm.
