

This is Alex. He has a story to tell you. It is a true story, and it happened when Alex was six years old.

Alex's parents were not Christians. They did not love God. They did not teach Alex and his little brother Ricky Bible stories about God. They did not sing or pray to God. They did not take care of Alex and his brother like good parents should. Their home was not happy.

When Alex and Ricky's parents could not keep them safe and happy, a lady came for them. She took Alex and his brother to live for a while with another mommy and daddy.

Alex was scared. But his new mommy told him about Jesus. She said that Jesus loves all little children. Then she sang “Jesus Loves Me.”

“God cares for everyone,” she said, “especially little children.”

Alex thought about that. It didn’t feel as if Jesus loved him. How could it be true?
