4. DEFINITIONS

4.1 Section 9 of the Child Protection Act 1999 - “Harm”, to a child, is any detrimental effect of a significant nature on the child’s physical, psychological or emotional wellbeing.

1. It is immaterial how the harm is caused.
2. Harm can be caused by—
 - a) physical, psychological or emotional abuse or neglect
 - b) sexual abuse or exploitation.
3. Harm can be caused by—
 - a) a single act, omission or circumstance
 - b) a series or combination of acts, omissions or circumstances.

4.2 Section 10 of the Child Protection Act 1999 - A “child in need of protection” is a student who—

- a) has suffered significant harm, is suffering significant harm, or is at unacceptable risk of suffering significant harm
- b) does not have a parent able and willing to protect the child from the harm.

4.3 Section 364 of the Education (General Provisions) Act 2006 - “Sexual abuse”, in relation to a relevant person, includes sexual behaviour involving the relevant person and another person in the following circumstances –

- (a) the other person bribes, coerces, exploits, threatens or is violent toward the relevant person
- (b) the relevant person has less power than the other person
- (c) there is a significant disparity between the relevant person and the other person in intellectual capacity or maturity.

5. POLICY

5.1 Health and Safety

The college has written processes in place about the health and safety of its staff and students in accordance with relevant workplace health and safety legislation¹.

5.2 Responding to Reports of Harm

When the college receives any information alleging 'harm'² to a student (other than harm arising from physical or sexual abuse) it will deal with the situation compassionately and fairly so as to minimise any likely harm to the extent it reasonably can. This is set out in the college’s Child Risk Management Strategy. Information relating to physical or sexual abuse is handled under obligations to report set out in this policy³.

5.3 Conduct of Staff and Students

All staff, contractors and volunteers must ensure that their behaviour towards and relationships with students reflect proper standards of care for students. Staff, contractors and volunteers must not cause harm to students⁴.

5.4 Reporting Inappropriate Behaviour

If a student considers the behaviour of a staff member to be inappropriate, the student should report the behaviour to: -

- (a) Any teacher the student trusts, College Counsellor and /or
- (b) Head of Campus, Primary or Deputy Principal⁵

5.5 Dealing with Report of Inappropriate Behaviour

A staff member who receives a report of inappropriate behaviour must report it to the Principal.

² Education (Accreditation of Non-State Schools) Regulation 2001 (Qld) s.10(8): the definition of 'harm' for this regulation is the same as in section 9 of the Child Protection Act 1999 (Qld)

³ Education (Accreditation of Non-State Schools) Regulation 2001 (Qld) s.10(2)

⁴ Education (Accreditation of Non-State Schools) Regulation 2001 (Qld) s.10(2)

⁵ Education (Accreditation of Non-State Schools) Regulation 2001 (Qld) s.10(3) and s.10 (4)

Where the Principal is the subject of the report of inappropriate behaviour, the staff member must inform the College Board Chair⁶. Reports will be dealt with under the college's Dispute Resolution/Complaints Handling Policy

5.7 Reporting Sexual Abuse⁷ under Education (General Provisions) Act 2006

Section 366 of the Education (General Provisions) Act 2006 states that if a staff member becomes aware, or reasonably suspects in the course of their employment at the college, that any of the following has been sexually abused by another person:

- a) a student under 18 years attending the college
- b) a pre-preparatory aged child registered in a pre-preparatory learning program at the college
- c) a person with a disability who: -
 - i. under section 420(2) of the Education (General Provisions) Act 2006 is being provided with special education at the college
 - ii. is not enrolled in the preparatory year at the college.

then the staff member must give a written report about the abuse or suspected abuse to the Principal or to a director of the college's governing body immediately.

The college's Principal or the College Board Chair, must immediately give a copy of the report to a police officer as a matter of urgency.

If the first person who becomes aware or reasonably suspects sexual abuse is the college's Principal, the Principal must give a written report about the abuse, or suspected abuse to a police officer immediately and must also give a copy of the report to the College Board Chair.

A report under this section must include the following particulars: -

- a) the name of the person giving the report (the first person)
- b) the student's name and sex
- c) details of the basis for the first person becoming aware, or reasonably suspecting, that the student has been sexually abused by another person
- d) details of the abuse or suspected abuse
- e) any of the following information of which the first person is aware: -
 - i. the student's age
 - ii. the identity of the person who has abused, or is suspected to have abused, the student
 - iii. the identity of anyone else who may have information about the abuse or suspected abuse⁸.

5.8 Reporting Likely Sexual Abuse⁹

Section 366A of the Education (General Provisions) Act 2006 states that if a staff member reasonably suspects in the course of their employment at the college, that any of the following is likely to be sexually abused by another person: -

- a) a student under 18 years attending the college
- b) a pre-preparatory aged child registered in a pre-preparatory learning program at the college

⁶ Education (Accreditation of Non-State Schools) Regulation 2001 (Qld) s.10(3)

⁷ Education (Accreditation of Non-State Schools) Regulation 2001 (Qld) s.10(5)(a)

⁸ Education (General Provisions) Regulation 2006 (Qld) s.68

⁹ Education (Accreditation of Non-State Schools) Regulation 2001 (Qld) s.10(5)(a)

- c) a person with a disability who: -
 - i. under section 420(2) of the Education (General Provisions) Act 2006 is being provided with special education at the college
 - ii. is not enrolled in the preparatory year at the college.

then the staff member must give a written report about the suspicion to the Principal or to a director of the college's governing body immediately.

The college's Principal or the director of the college's governing body must immediately give a copy of the report to a police officer.

If the first person who reasonably suspects likely sexual abuse is the college's Principal, the Principal must give a written report about the suspicion to a police officer immediately and must also give a copy of the report to a director of the college's governing body.

A report under this section must include the following particulars: -

- a) the name of the person giving the report (the first person)
- b) the student's name and sex
- c) details of the basis for the first person reasonably suspecting that the student is likely to be sexually abused by another person
- d) any of the following information of which the first person is aware: -
 - i. the student's age
 - ii. the identity of the person who has abused, or is suspected to be likely to abuse, the student
 - iii. the identity of anyone else who may have information about suspected likelihood of abuse¹⁰.

5.9 Reporting Physical and Sexual Abuse under Education (General Provisions) Act 2006

Under Section 13E (3) of the Child Protection Act 1999, if a teacher forms a 'reportable suspicion' about a child in the course of their engagement in their profession, they must make a written report.

A reportable suspicion about a child is a reasonable suspicion that the child: -

- a) has suffered, is suffering, or is at unacceptable risk of suffering, significant harm caused by physical or sexual abuse
- b) may not have a parent able and willing to protect the child from the harm.

The teacher must give a written report to the Chief Executive of the Department of Communities, Child Safety and Disability Services (or other department administering the Child Protection Act 1999). The teacher should give a copy of the report to the Principal.

A report under this section must include the following particulars: -

- a) state the basis on which the person has formed the reportable suspicion
- b) include the information prescribed by regulation, to the extent of the person's knowledge¹¹.

5.10 Awareness

The college will inform staff, students and parents of its processes relating to the health, safety and conduct of staff and students in communications to them and it will publish these processes on the web accessible to staff and parents¹².

5.11 Training

The college will train its staff in processes relating to the health, safety and conduct of staff and students on their induction and will refresh training annually¹³.

Staff are trained annually at Professional Development sessions in January, and on induction to the College.

5.12 Implementing the Processes

The college will ensure it is implementing processes relating to the health, safety and conduct of staff and students by auditing compliance with the processes annually¹⁴.

5.12 Accessibility of Processes

Processes relating to the health, safety and conduct of staff and students are accessible through the College intranet services for parents and staff and will be available on request from the college administration¹⁵.

5.13 Complaints Procedure

Suggestions of non-compliance with the college's processes may be submitted as complaints under the Complaint/Dispute Resolution Policy¹⁶.
