100 acres of AG-20 vacant land in Hilo, Hawaii. So much potential: to create your ranch, a family farm, to build a dream home and to hide away from the crazy world. It is located in a higher land where the air is cooler. About 1,100 foot elevation and may have possible views of Hilo and the ocean. It is about 6 miles from the city. It is a good time to own a large parcel of gently sloping acreage with development potential at this time. A flag lot creates better privacy. Grab this opportunity while you can.
