Interesting topographical features. corner acre has some Pahoehoe and looks to be a collapsed lava tube on the upper side. In your face Coast views! Scattered Ohia and other native plants. sspp electric on the street. Only 1/2 way up the subdivision, this is a beauty. Terrain beckons one to develop and landscape the natural scenery. Ocean View is a growing rural community with lots of amenities. Close to South Point and the famous Green and Black sand beaches.
