Hawaiian Ocean View Estates - nicely forested 70 x 623 ft lots x 4, side by side, in the middle of the block. Here's a great opportunity to own four contiguous acres and build your own family compound! The top two properties sit up high at the street and there's a gulch that runs through them further back on the property. The lower two lots are mostly lava rock. Good ocean, sunset and South Point views and a sparsely populated area would make a pleasant place to build your new home. There is no Helco power available in this block, so go off-grid with
