Kohala Ranch is the North Kohala gated ranch community. Nothing else like it exists in Hawaii... or the world for that matter. The Ranch rises from about 100' above sea level to nearly 3800' above the picturesque waves. One neighborhood with such an amazing diversity of climate and character. And then there is the neighborhood within the neighborhood: The Meadows. Located a little above the halfway point toward the top, the Meadows is known for slightly cooler and more comfortable temperatures with higher rainfall than the lower elevations - perfect
